Haze Advisory: Precautionary Measures (10–11 October 2026)

In view of the current haze situation and following the directive of Archbishop Julian Leow, parishioners are advised to observe the following precautions:

- Outdoor Activities: All outdoor parish activities are suspended this weekend.
- Catechism Classes: Indoor classes may proceed if conditions are safe. All outdoor classes are suspended. Classes may be cancelled if the haze worsens.
- Face Masks: Parishioners are encouraged to wear face masks, especially in areas with poor air quality.
- Sunday Mass Dispensation: The elderly, those with respiratory difficulties, and those whose health may be affected by the haze are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sunday, 11 October 2026. Online Mass is encouraged where available.

Let us keep all those affected by the haze, especially the elderly and vulnerable, in our prayers. May the haze improve soon and everyone remain safe.

White Mass

In conjunction, with the Feast Day of St Luke, SIC will be organizing White Mass on Sun, 18 Oct 6.00 pm. We are inviting all retired and active health care workers (including but not limited to pharmacists, nurses, medical lab workers, radiographers, doctors, dentists, medical researchers, paramedics, first aiders and health studies related university students) to attend this Mass dressed in their official uniforms, scrubs or white coats. There will be a photography session and refreshments after the Mass. For more info, contact: Dr Benedict Sim 012-291 8762.

Rosary & Teh Tarik with SIC SAM

In celebration of the Month of the Holy Rosary, the SIC Single Adults Ministry (SAM) warmly invites all young people aged 23–39 for a cozy evening of prayer, followed by Teh Tarik and fellowship afterwards.
