Introduction to the World Mission Rosary

Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen created the World Mission Rosary in 1951. He wanted to encourage Catholics to pray for the whole world and become aware of the Church's missionary work in every corner of the globe.

He believed that prayer is powerful, and that when we pray the rosary, we can spiritually reach out to people everywhere, even those we've never met. He said, "When the Rosary is completed, one has embraced all continents, all people in prayer."

Each decade is a different colour, representing a part of the world where missionaries serve.

- Africa is represented by the green decade for its forest & grasslands.
- The Americas are red to show the continent's missionaries fire of faith.
- Europe is white because it is the home of the Holy Father, who wears white.
- Oceania is shown in blue for the oceans surrounding the islands there.
- Asia is portrayed in yellow as a symbol of the sun rising in the east.

Message from Our Archbishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Every October, the Church throughout the world celebrates World Mission Month, reminding us that the mission of proclaiming the Gospel belongs to every baptized person. Through prayer, sacrifice, witness and generous support of the Church's missionary work, we participate in Christ's mission to bring the Good News to all peoples.

The World Mission Rosary has long united Catholics in prayer for the peoples of Africa, the Americas, Europe, Oceania and Asia, expressing our communion with the universal Church and our concern for the spread of the Gospel throughout the world.

This Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization has been adapted for our Archdiocese. While remaining faithful to the traditional intentions of the World Mission Rosary, it also invites us to reflect on our missionary calling within our families, Basic Ecclesial Communities (BECs), parishes and Archdiocese. It reminds us that mission begins with a personal encounter with Jesus Christ, grows through evangelization, is lived through compassionate accompaniment, and bears fruit in a joyful, synodal and missionary Church. ...

I encourage our families, BECs and parish communities, to pray this Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization throughout the Month of October. May it inspire us not only to pray for the missions, but also to become missionary disciples wherever God has placed us.

The mission reflection questions at the end of each mysteries are offered as a simple aid for personal prayer and community sharing. May they help us listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit, deepen our commitment to evangelization, and discern how each of us is called to proclaim Christ in our daily lives.

As we celebrate World Mission Month, let us also express our communion with the universal Church through our prayers, our witness and our generous support of the Mission Sunday Collection, helping to sustain the Church's missionary work in places where Christ is still little known.

Through the intercession of Mary, Mother of the Church and Star of Evangelization, may the Holy Spirit renew our hearts and strengthen us to proclaim Christ with joy, so that our families, our communities and our Church may become ever more faithful witnesses to the Gospel.

"From now on all generations will call me blessed" (Luke 1:48)

May God bless you abundantly.

How to use the Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization e-booklet

1. The Mysteries of the Rosary

Choose the mysteries according to the day or occasion:

- ❖ Joyful Mysteries - Page 5
- ❖ Luminous Mysteries - Page 16
- ❖ Sorrowful Mysteries - Page 27
- ❖ Glorious Mysteries - Page 38

2. The Mysteries of the Rosary are arranged according to the Lifespan of Jesus that co-relate to our journey of discipleship

The four sets of mysteries of the rosary invite us to journey through the:

- a. Infancy Narratives – The birth and early life of Jesus, which relates to the nurturing of faith within our families.
- b. Ministry and Mission – the public ministry and mission of Jesus - that correlates with our encountering him as our personal Lord and Saviour.
- c. Passion Narratives – the Passion and death of Jesus that correlate with the forgiveness of our sins.
- d. Resurrection of Jesus that correlates with hope in new life and life eternal.

3. Praying the Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization

Using any regular rosary beads begin with the prayer Mary, Mother of the Church and Star of Evangelization before reciting the Apostles' Creed (I Believe).

For each decade, the Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization e-booklet provides the following:

Universal Mission Intentions – praying for the people and mission in the continent represented by that decade.

Localized Mission Intentions – praying for the needs and mission of the Church in our Malaysian context.

4. Questions for Mission Reflection and Prayer of Commitment

At the end of Hail Holy Queen and Let us Pray, there are reflective questions for small group discussions and sharing that serve to stir a greater sense of mission and evangelization. The questions are not exhaustive and additional questions may be thought of.

At the end of the discussion/sharing there is an invitation to make a commitment for mission and evangelization.

5. Hymns

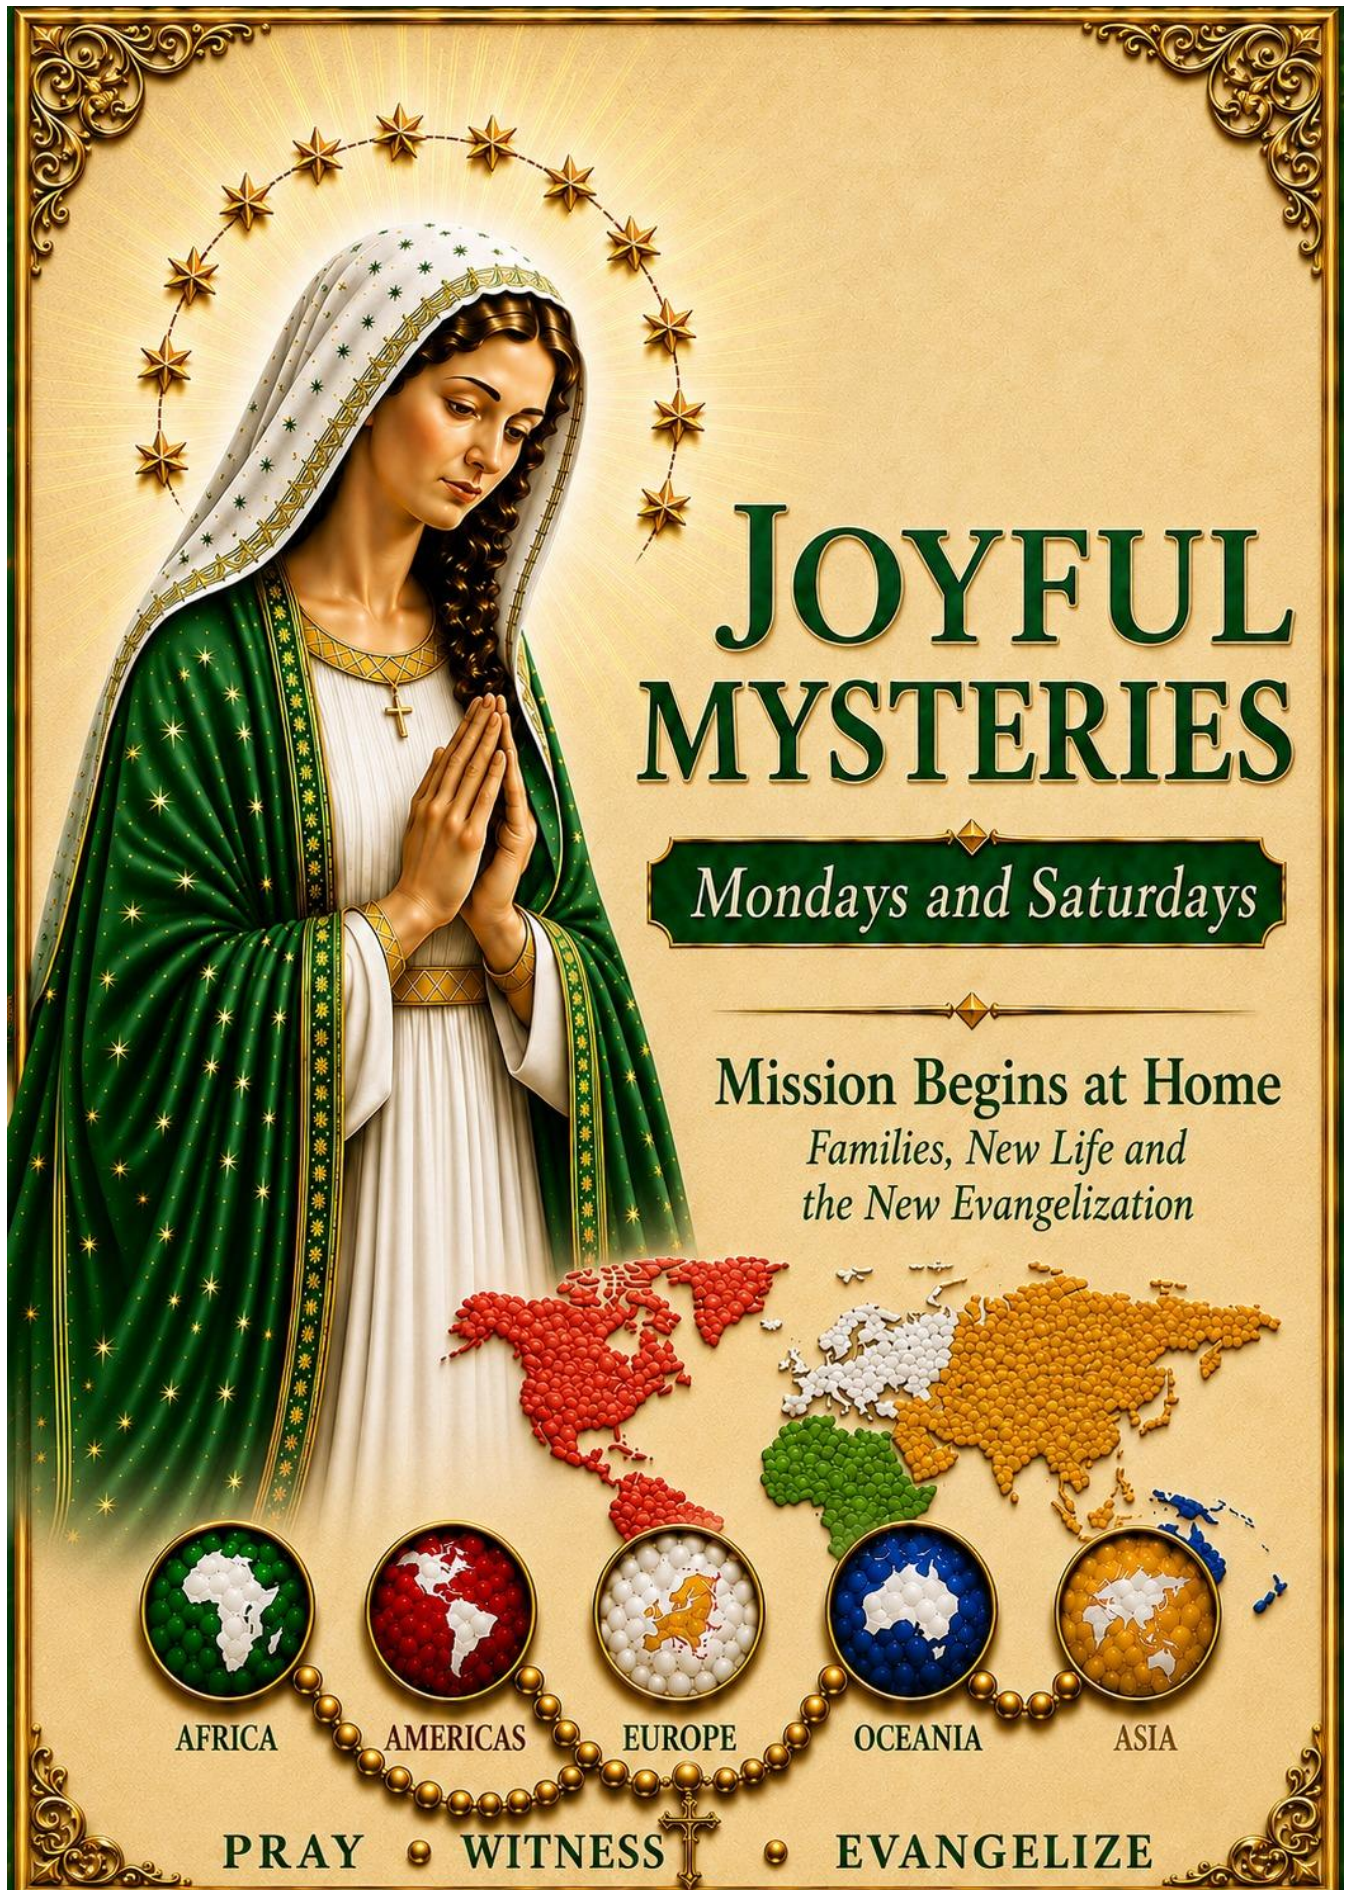

No selection of hymns has been provided in this Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization e-booklet, allowing families, BECs and parish communities to choose hymns that are appropriate to their setting.

The Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization e-booklet may be begun with a Marian hymn and concluded with a missionary or sending-forth hymn of choice. E.g, A Light within the World

6. Additional Prayers

Other appropriate prayers according to the personal needs and that of families, BECs and parish communities may be added, for example:

Litanies of the Sacred Heart or of the Blessed Virgin Mary • Prayers to St Michael the Archangel or any other Saint • Other Devotional or Missional prayers.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Prayer to Mary, Mother of the Church and Star of Evangelization

Mary, Mother of Jesus and Mother of His Church,

You were present with the Apostles at Pentecost as the Holy Spirit brought the Church to birth and sent her forth on mission. We recognize your maternal role in guiding the Church's mission to all who do not yet know your Son. Throughout history, missionaries have entrusted the fruits of their labour to your care. As the Mother of Divine Grace, through your intercession, the grace of Baptism took root and grew in the hearts of believers.

Help us now to fulfil the Church's mission of evangelization, especially through the New Evangelization. As the Star of Evangelization, we entrust ourselves, our families, our BECs, our parishes, our Archdiocese, and our missionary calling to your maternal care. Pray that, through the Holy Spirit, we may bring the Gospel ever more deeply into the hearts and lives of all people, becoming a synodal and missionary Church that forms missionary disciples and bears witness to your Son by word and example.

To Jesus Christ, your Son, with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be all praise and thanksgiving for ever and ever. Amen.

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell; on the third day, He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and seated at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Hail Mary (3X)

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus, O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray

O God, whose only begotten Son, by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal salvation; grant, we beseech you, that, meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Questions for Mission Reflection

As we reflect on the early life of Christ, we are reminded that the mission of evangelization begins in the ordinary realities of life: in our homes, our families, our relationships, and our communities. Mary's 'Yes' to God becomes a mission. As we complete the Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization today, let us ask ourselves:

- ❖ In which area in my life is Christ inviting me to renew my own faith and relationship with Him?
- ❖ How can my family become more of a domestic church where prayer, love and faith are lived?
- ❖ Who in my BEC or parish may need a word of encouragement or an invitation back to the Church?
- ❖ How can I help the younger generation encounter Jesus in a meaningful way?
- ❖ How can we utilise social media to share faith, build community and offer hope?

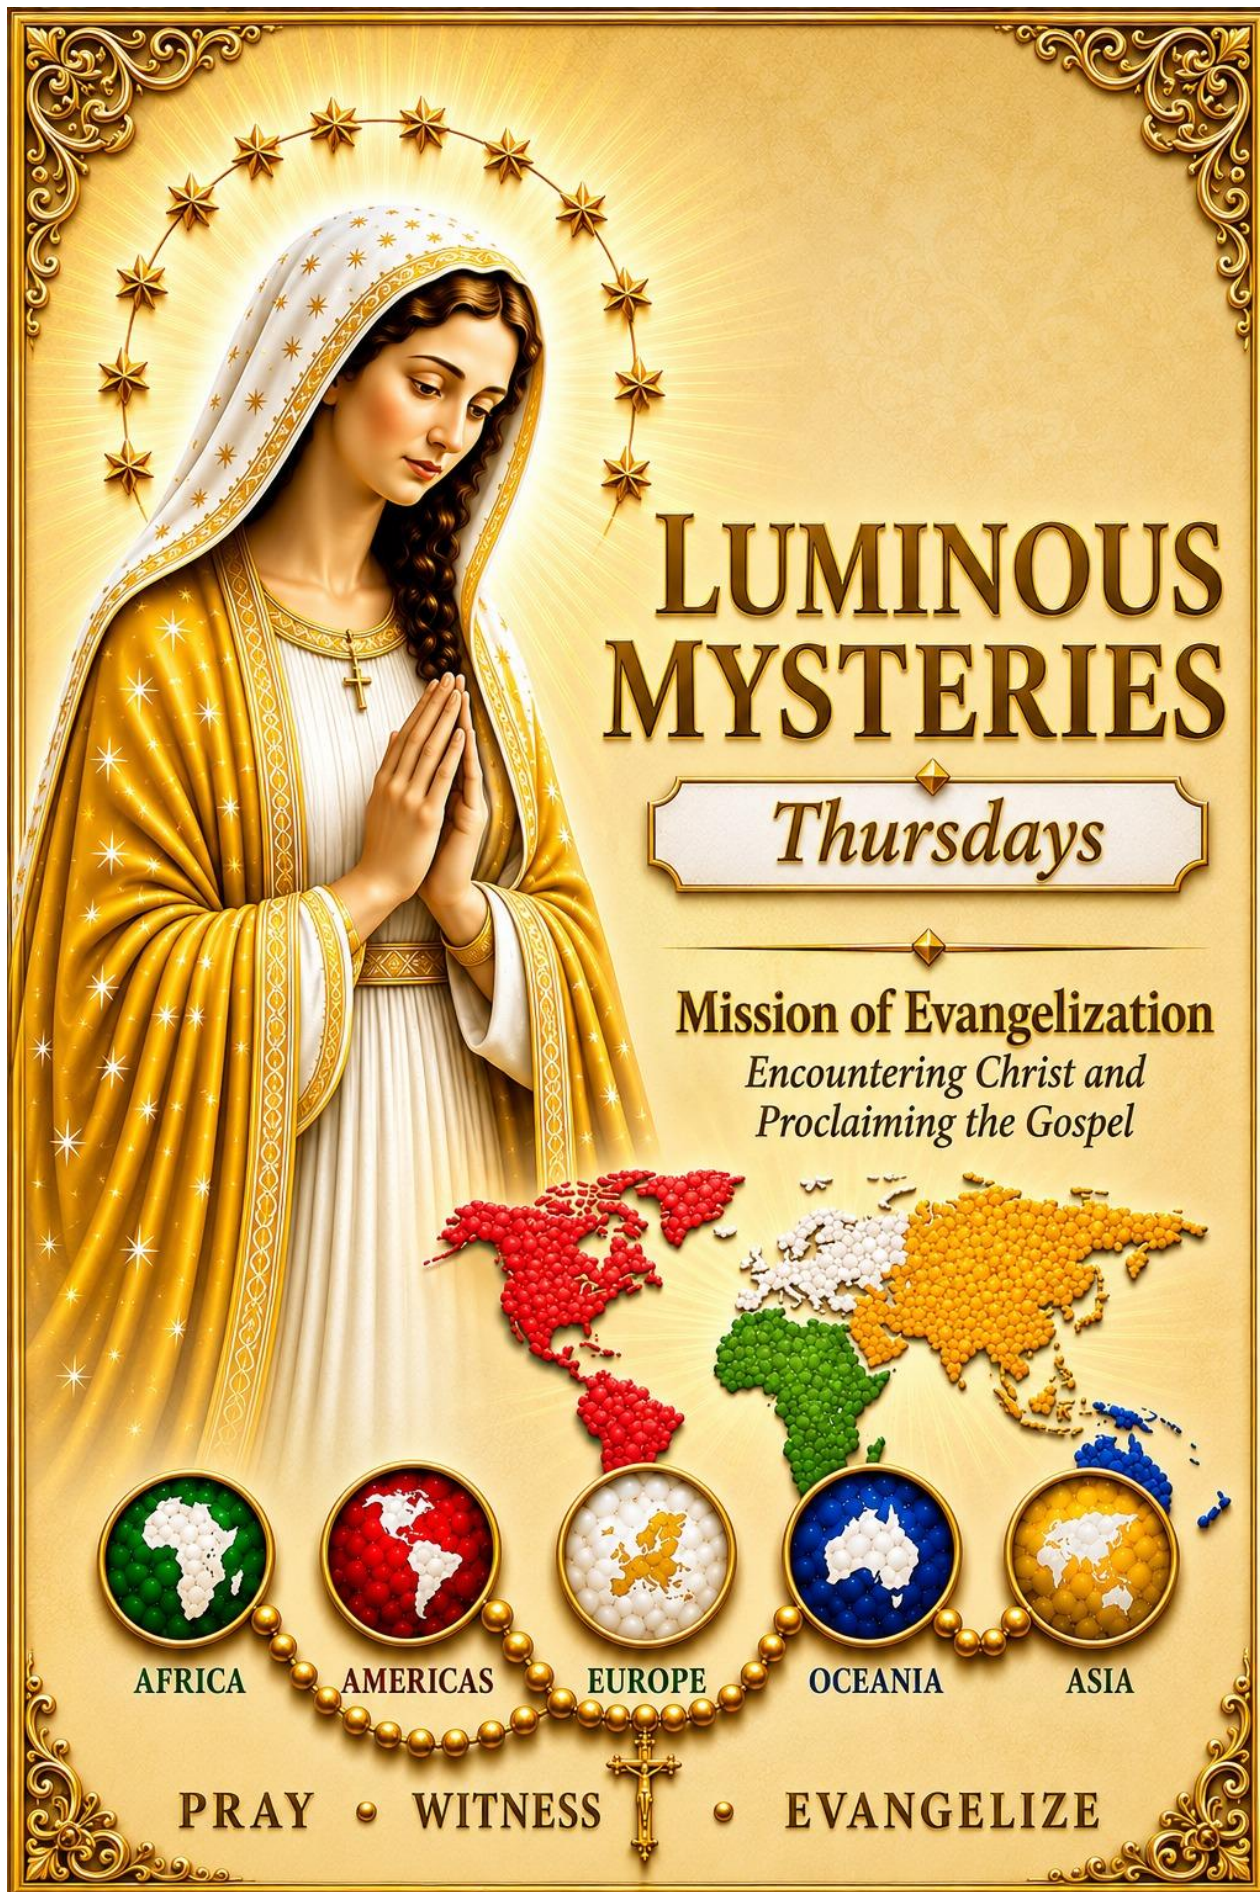

Prayer of Commitment

Lord God, we thank you for the gift of your Son. As we walked through these Joyful Mysteries, we saw Your love come close to us. Help us give what we can to help your kingdom come. We ask for the grace to bring this joy to others. Baptised and sent: may our hands be ready to help the poor, may our feet be ready to walk your path and may our words speak of your love. Amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Questions for Mission Reflection

As we conclude these Luminous Mysteries, we are reminded that evangelization begins with an encounter with Christ who reveals Himself as the Light of the World. Every encounter with Christ is an invitation to conversion, discipleship and mission. As we complete the Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization today, let us ask ourselves:

- ❖ When was my last personal encounter with Jesus that transformed my life?
- ❖ How can we become an inviting community that reaches out to others to grow in faith?
- ❖ How can I use my gifts, relationships and digital presence to proclaim the Gospel?
- ❖ How can our BEC become a place where every person encounters Christ, grows in faith, and is sent to proclaim the Gospel with joy?
- ❖ How can we as a parish create opportunities for lifelong faith formation and transformation?

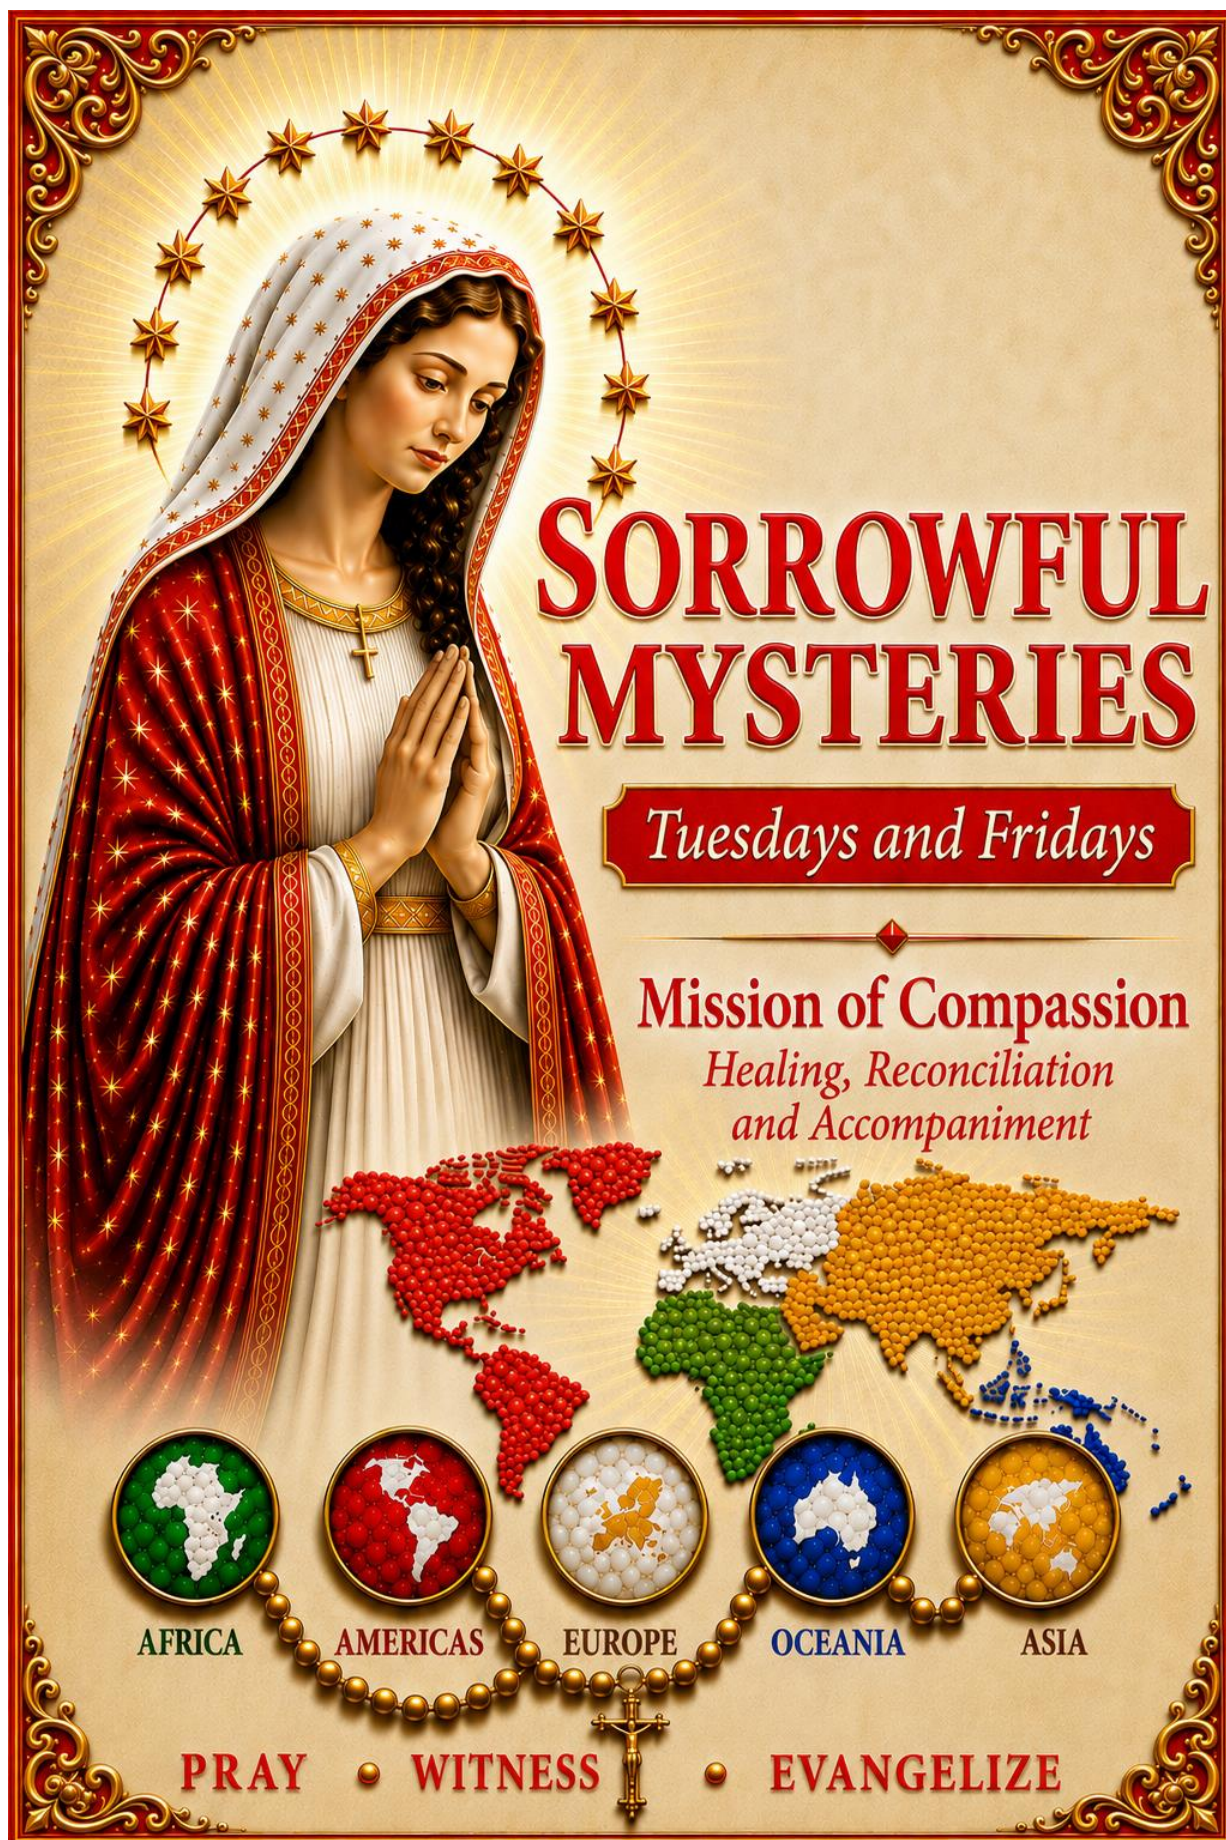

Prayer of Commitment

Lord Jesus, Light of the World, You call us first to encounter You and then to proclaim the Good News with joy. Renew in us the grace of our Baptism, nourish us through the Eucharist, and deepen our faith through Your Word. Fill us with the courage to evangelize in our homes, our parish, our workplaces, and in the digital world. Help us to witness Your love in our multicultural society, so that all may come to know You, the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Amen.

Questions for Mission Reflection

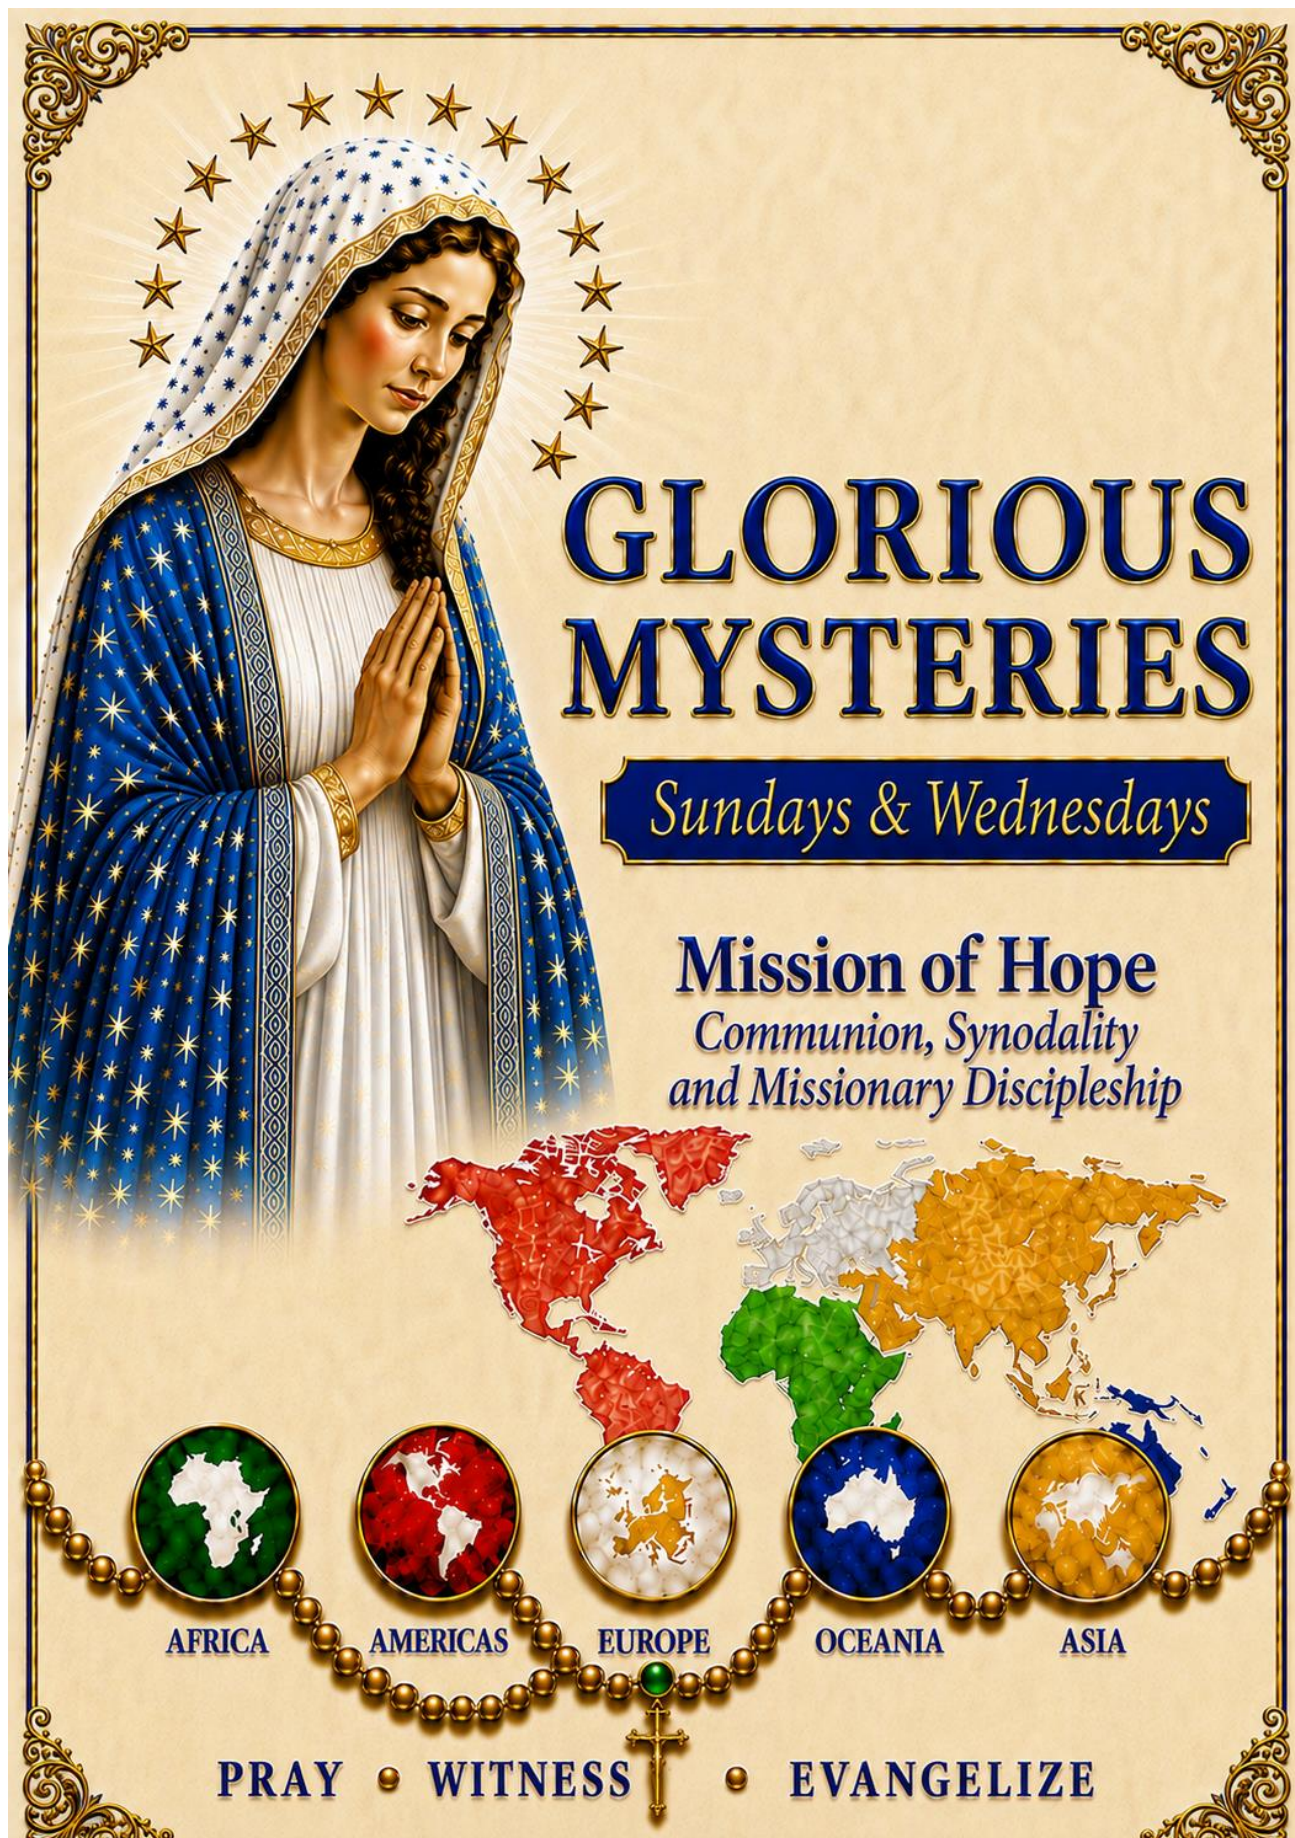

As we reflect on the Passion of Christ, we are reminded that the Church exists to evangelize, and that the first proclamation of the Gospel is often made through closeness, compassion and tenderness; and even in challenging times. Before we speak about Christ, people should experience Christ through us. As we complete this Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization today, let us ask ourselves:

- ❖ Do I recognise Christ present in the poor, the sick, the elderly, the disabled and the marginalized?
- ❖ How can we become a visible sign of Christ's compassionate love in our BEC and neighbourhood?
- ❖ How can my parish become a welcoming parish where people experience Christ's love, mercy and presence?
- ❖ How could I reach out and accompany migrant families in need through the Corporal Works of Mercy?
- ❖ Am I willing to walk with the younger generations in their struggles, even though it may only require empathetic listening on my part?

Prayer of Commitment

Lord Jesus, may our Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization not end with the Sign of the Cross but begin with a mission of compassion. Send us to bring Your presence to those who suffer, Your hope to those who despair, and Your love to those who have yet to encounter You. Give us the grace of accompaniment. Make us missionary disciples, who proclaim the Gospel not only with our words but with our lives. Amen.

You will be my witnesses.

Mary is taken body and soul into heavenly glory. She is a sign of the hope and destiny of the whole Church.

Communion in Diversity

Let us pray for the peoples of Oceania, that they may continue to grow in faith and unity.

Let us also pray for our multicultural Church, that people of every race, language and culture may be welcomed as one family in Christ, witnessing to the unity of the Gospel.

The Fifth Glorious Mystery

● Yellow – Asia

The Coronation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Mary's whole life was a response to God's call. Her "Yes" at the Annunciation became a lifelong mission.

Missionary Vocations

Let us pray for the peoples of Asia, that the Gospel may continue to spread with courage and hope.

Let us also pray for priestly, religious and lay missionary vocations, that many may generously respond to Christ's call to serve the Church and proclaim the Gospel in our Archdiocese, throughout Asia and to the ends of the earth.

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To you do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To you do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of your womb, Jesus, O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray

O God, whose only begotten Son, by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal salvation; grant, we beseech you, that, meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Questions for Mission Reflection

As we reflect on the Risen Christ, we are reminded to become communities where people encounter hope, where every person has a place, where gifts are recognised, where differences become a source of richness, and where every baptised discovers his or her missionary vocation. As we complete the Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization today, let us ask ourselves:

- ❖ Do I recognise and acknowledge my identity as a missionary disciple after my Baptism?
- ❖ How am I helping to build the synodal elements of communion, participation and mission within my parish community?
- ❖ What gifts has God entrusted to me that I can offer for the evangelizing mission of His Church in Malaysia?
- ❖ To whom could I reach out to with the message of salvation through my Spiritual Works of Mercy?
- ❖ How can I help my parish become a Church that goes forth to encounter others and bring the hope of Christ to those who have not yet encountered Him?

Prayer of Commitment

Lord Jesus, Risen Christ, may this Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization strengthen us to live as Your missionary disciples. Help us to build communion, share our gifts for the mission of Your Church and become a Church that goes forth to bring Your hope, love and presence to all, especially those who have not yet encountered You. May your Holy Spirit enable us to proclaim the joy of the Gospel through the work of New Evangelization. Amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Postscript Message

from the Ecclesiastical Assistants

Let us pause prayerfully and ask: What might the Lord be inviting me to do next?

This Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization invites us to look beyond ourselves and share in the Church's universal mission. Through its localised intentions, we are reminded that this mission belongs to every baptised person, wherever we may be on our journey of faith, as we walk together as a synodal Church in communion, participation and mission.

The Archdiocesan Mission of New Evangelization for Christ (AMNEC) offers a pathway of discipleship: knowing Jesus, loving Jesus and sharing Jesus. Through its initiatives and formation opportunities, we are invited to encounter Christ more deeply, grow in friendship with Him and share the joy of the Gospel.

Our catechism children, too, can become young missionary disciples. Through PMS–Holy Childhood, activities, they pray for children around the world and share generously with those in need, discovering the joy of missionary charity.

These are but some pathways. Each of us is invited to discern how the Lord is calling us to live our baptismal mission—through our families, BECs, parishes, workplaces, relationships, service and witness. For some, this call may lead to a priestly or religious vocation, offering their lives more fully for the service of Christ and His Church.

May this Mission Rosary for the New Evangelization awaken in us a missionary heart that cares, seeks Christ and joyfully shares the Gospel.

His Mother said: "Do whatever he tells you." (John 2:5)
